

CAREERS IN HEALTH

The Health Service of Jamaica has a wide variety of careers in its ministry.

Admission Requirements: Entry into the Health Service requires certificates and degrees awarded from recognised institutions both locally and abroad. Below is a list of the career category, the entry requirements into the programmes necessary to obtain the certificates and degrees necessary to them, as well as some of the institutions from which they can be gained.

Health Records Health Records & Health Statistics

A certificate in Health Records & Health Statistics (Level 1) is required for entry to this group. The duration of the programme is one (1) year and is offered at the University of Technology. There is an internship period of eight (8) weeks.

For promotion in this group, a Certificate in Health Records & Health Statistics (Level 2) is required. The duration of the course is two (2) summers and it is offered at the University of Technology.

Operating Theatre Technicians

A certificate in Operating Theatre Technician is required for entry to this group. The duration of the programme is four (4) months and is offered at the Bustamante Hospital for Children.